

FRIENDS' FOOTNOTES

2017

President's Notes:

Don't forget there is no May meeting because of our Memorial Day Weekend Book Sale. We always need help to set-up Thursday morning at 8:00AM and take down on Sunday at 4:00PM. We still need a few volunteers to work the book sale, too. Also, remember to purchase your raffle tickets for the wine basket. Let's make this Book Sale a huge success!

Next month is our summer potluck lunch. Hope to see you all there!

Linda Armstrong, President

Treasurer's Report:

Balance on hand as of April, 2017 was $5,550.93. Total receipts were zero. Total disbursements were $2,584.12 for Activity Room rental commitment and carpet and furniture cleaning in the library. The balance on hand as of the end of April, 2017 is $2,966.81

Torrie Harding, Treasurer

Secretary's Report:

Linda Armstrong invited everyone to join in the Pledge of Allegiance to begin the meeting, and welcomed guests present to hear the guest speaker, Dr. Debera Butler. Sue Hedman introduced , Dr. Butler, a native Arizonan and small animal veterinarian whose practice is in Scottsdale. She is also an educator of veterinary medicine and has become known as the "Elk Whisperer," after freeing an elk of a tire swing and a log that had become entangled in it's antlers. After Dr. Butler's presentation and a question and answer time, there was a short recess for refreshments followed by the business meeting.

Harriett Follmer moved the Secretary's report be approved as presented in the newsletter, second by Torrie Harding. Motion carried.

Torrie Harding gave the Treasurer's report , showing a balance of $5,550.93 (see her report for details). Motion to approve by Aggie Hansen, second by Debbie Tamietti. Motion carried.

No New Business

Old Business:

Becky Waer thanked Friends for funding the library carpet cleaning performed by Sunshine Carpet Cleaners and it is looking much better.

There is no May meeting due to the Memorial Day book sale. Nancy Sackett was signed up to be co-chair with Nancy Hubbs, however she is recovering from surgery and unable to fulfill the duties. Thanks to Linda Armstrong for volunteering to fill the position. Becky Waer will print flyers advertising the book sale and Aggie Hansen will distribute same to local business. Remember the June meeting Potluck Luncheon at 12 noon in the Activity Room and bring a friend to enjoy the good company and delicious luncheon.

Becky advised that the Wine Basket is assembled and raffle tickets are available for purchase in the library.

Jean Larson has the sign-up sheet available for anyone wanting to provide refreshments at future meetings.

Linda Armstrong advised that she may be moving to Florida so there is a possibility that we may need to fill the position of President this year.

Thanks to Debbie Tamietti, Sue Hedman and Dr. Butler for the delicious refreshments. Debbie and Sue reported that the guest speaker for our July meeting is a former book store owner.

There being no further business to discuss, Torrie Harding moved the meeting be adjourned, second by Barbara Hirsch. Motion carried.
