

FRIENDS' FOOTNOTES

Farewell to 2017 and Welcome 2018

President's Notes: Wishing you all a Very Merry and Safe Holiday Season!

Sue Hedman, Vice President

Treasurer's Report:

The bank balance as of the first of November, 2017 was $5,838.98. Receipts for in-library book sales were $60.00. There were no disbursements. Balance on hand at the end of November, 2017 is $5,898.98

Torrie Harding, Treasurer

Secretary's Report:

Almost thirty members and friends enjoyed the annual Christmas Potluck Luncheon, including three long-time members, Harriet Follmer, Barbara Grillo and Mary Hunt. Sue Hedman led in the Pledge of Allegiance and invited Mary Hunt to ask the blessing. Everyone enjoyed the many delicious dishes brought to share. Thank you to Jean Larson and her helpers who set up, decorated the tables and provided the tasty punch. Several people were lucky to be sitting in just the right chair and received a lovely poinsettia to take home.

Becky Waer thanked Friends for their financial support over the year. Thanks to our book sales, we were able to give funds for a new door for the storage shed, have the library carpet cleaned, add new wooden book shelves to replace some old metal ones, and help pay for a new air conditioner for the library. It's been a good year.

Pine Library Friends will not meet in January but be sure to put Monday, February 26th, 2018 at 1:00 pm on your calendar, when we will resume our schedule.
