Library Manager's Report:

I cannot believe we are already moving into March! As always, we have a lot going in the library. Dr. Seuss Activities are happening the first week of March. Join us on February 29th, 10 am, for Dr. Seuss's birthday with games, crafts, snacks, prizes and FREE gifts. Maybe the Cat in the Hat will attend!

We are always getting new books. Here is a very small sampling of new books that are available for checkout! Remember, if the book is checked out, we will reserve it for you. It's that easy. Just a reminder, if a book is not available at our library, we can request it from another library (if it's not too new), have it brought here for you to check out here.

Peggy is busy creating fun afternoons for all our patrons. March 6th, Friday, 3 pm, will be "Crafternoon" class, making gnomes. Bring a pair of socks, and all other materials are provided.

The picture below shows a few gnomes created by Peggy and Janine. Teens and adults are welcome. Come and join us for a fun afternoon! Please sign up in the library, call 476-3678, or contact Peggy at peagan.ihp@gmail.com.

If you have kids coming up for Spring Break, bring them to the library. There's a lot happening. Check the March Calendar!
